FEDERAL GROUP PLANS LINCOLN OBSERVANCE ON NOVEMBER 19

The Lincoln Centennial Commission will join forces with the Lincoln Fellowship of Gettysburg and other local groups in presenting an outstanding program in the Gettysburg National Cemetery on November 19. The occasion is the 96th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address.

Lloyd A. Dunlap, administrative officer of the Centennial Commission, conferred with several Gettysburgians Thursday afternoon at the Hotel Gettysburg on informal plans. Dunlap said: "The Lincoln Centennial Commission is most anxious to cooperate to the fullest with Gettysburg in preparing and presenting an outstanding program on this occasion. It is hopeful that it will be of such magnitude as to attract nationwide interest."

Discuss Suggestions

Among the things discussed informally at the meeting included a colorful parade similar to the one held here on November 19, 1863; an outstanding speaker; the possibility of having the governors of the four "Lincoln States," Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania, speak briefly or participate in the program in some other capacity; present the same music as was sung and played here 96 years ago; invite descendants of Lincoln and Edward Everett to participate in the program; secure a prominent Lincoln impersonator to read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address; invite Carl Sandburg, most prominent Lincoln scholar, to participate and other suggestions.

Dunlap was enthusiastic over the prospects of presenting a program that will do credit to the memory of the great emancipator.

"We feel that this is the opportunity to do something really outstanding in keeping with the observance of the Lincoln Centennial year. We have the means and the men and the enthusiasm to prepare such a program and in cooperation with Gettysburg groups we are confident we will have something worthwhile," Dunlap said.

Gettysburgians at the meeting were Henry M. Scharf, G. Henry Roth and Paul L. Roy. Dr. Frederick Tilberg, president of the Lincoln Fellowship, was unable to attend because of his absence from the city.

Meade's Men Were Barefoot Boys In Blue

Suggested goals were assigned various communities for the forthcoming fund campaign of the Adams County Girl Scout Council at a meeting of its finance committee at the Girl Scout office Thursday night.

Mrs. Clark Smith presided at the session at which the date for start of the county-wide finance campaign was set as October 14. In Gettysburg the campaign will be conducted by the Community Chest as part of the fund it raises for various local organizations.

In the county the drive will be conducted by canvassers selected by various community chairmen.

Of the $6,500 sought in the drive, $2,500 is to be raised by Community Chest and $4,000 through the drive in the other areas of the county.

Assign Area Goals

Mrs. Smith, chairman of the finance committee, said the goal was based on an amount of $4.76 per enrolled Girl Scout.

During the week prior to October 14, letters will be sent (Continued On Page 3)

ORPHANAGE LEFT $2,500

The Hoffman Orphanage, near Littlestown, will receive $2,500 from the estate of the late Fannie S. Thoman, according to the estate account adjudicated in York on Thursday.

French Airliner Explodes; 53 Of 65 Passengers Die

BORDEAUX, France (AP) — A French airliner bound for Africa crashed and exploded within minutes of takeoff Thursday night, killing 53 of the 65 persons aboard.

Three children were among the 12 survivors thrown clear before the four-engine DC7 blew up and burst into flames. Most were burned seriously.

The plane made a two-hour stopover in Bordeaux after an uneventful flight from Paris on a regular trip to Bamako, French Sudan, and Abidjan on the Ivory Coast.

Officials of the privately owned TAL (Transport Aerien Intercontinental) airline, operators of the aircraft, said several prominent African politicians were aboard.

Among the survivors was Sekou Sissoko, health minister of the French Cameroons. Most of the passengers were French. Airline officials said there were a few Britons aboard but there was no immediate indication of any Americans on the flight.

FRUIT PLANTS UNAFFECTED BY LACK OF WATER

While residents of Bendersville and Cashtown are conserving water on business and household basis in the face of a shortage, the situation does not appear critical elsewhere.

Edward Nowicki, Knouse Foods production manager in Peach Glen, reports, "No problem."

Meanwhile, Al Stauffer, spokesman for the C. H. Musselman Company at Biglerville, states that the company is in "good shape and there is no discussion of a possible shutdown. Neither Musselman plant is being affected," he added.

Concern loomed in Bendersville Thursday when town officials urged residents "to conserve water in every possible way. Our situation is critical."

Similar difficulty is being experienced at Cashtown. Residents were asked to conserve supplies as the reservoir level dropped steadily as near-drought conditions continue.

Some relief in the affected areas is expected within the next few days. A new well has been drilled at Cashtown and gives promise of an increased supply shortly.

Weddings

Morrison—Gill

The wedding of Miss Yvonne Gill, daughter of Mrs. John Gill of Shiremanstown and the late Mr. Gill, to Richard T. Morrison, son of Clarence S. Morrison, of Bendersville, and the late Mrs. Della Taylor Morrison, took place recently at the First Church of God, Shiremanstown. The Rev. J. O. Weigle officiated.

The bride had as her attendant Jeanne Lewis, of New Cumberland. Raymond Bittner, of Carlisle, was best man. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brinton, New Cumberland, brother-in-law and sister of the bride.

The bride is employed in the accounting department of the Bell Telephone Company, Harrisburg. The bridegroom is a supervisor in the data processing division of the ordnance supply office at the Naval Supply Depot, Mechanicsburg. Following a wedding trip to Ocean City, N. J., the couple are residing at their home, 806 Hummel Ave., Lemoyne.

Bittinger—Black

The marriage of Miss Shirley Ann Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Black, New Oxford R. 1, to John R. Bittinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bittinger, 231 Baer Ave., Hanover, took place recently at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Harrisburg. The Rev. H. B. Helfrich conducted the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Attending the couple were Miss Sally J. Black, sister of the bride, and William Hoke, Hanover. Following the ceremony, members of the immediate families attended a wedding dinner in Harrisburg after which the couple left for a honeymoon in Stone Harbor, N. J.

They will reside at 121 Fairmont Ave., State College, where the bridegroom is a student in architecture at Pennsylvania State University. Both are 1955 graduates of Eichelberger Senior High School. Mrs. Bittinger was graduated from the Maryland Medical Secretarial School, Hagerstown, and has been employed as surgical secretary at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital.

Rev. Simmons Back From Camp Session

The Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons Jr., pastor of the Church of the Brethren, returned Wednesday night from Indiana where he attended the national training session for church camp leaders at Bradford Woods, Ind., 25 miles southwest of Indianapolis. Twenty-two campers from 16 states were given two weeks of intensive training in the philosophy and techniques of small group camping under the direction of six nationally known leaders in church camping.

The Rev. Maurice D. Bone of the Board of Education of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America with offices in Philadelphia was director. Among the leaders were Dr. L. B. Sharp, visiting professor of outdoor education, University of Illinois; Dr. Carl Carlson, naturalist, University of Indiana, and the Rev. Don Niswander, board of education, Methodist Church, Chicago. This training session was one of three held this summer under sponsorship of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. Seventy-four camp leaders received this additional training this year.

Pastor Simmons was the only representative of the Church of the Brethren and one of the two from Pennsylvania there. The campers came from the states east of the Rocky Mountains.

FIRE ROCKET TO PHOTO STORM

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —

A camera-carrying rocket shot over the Atlantic today to photograph Hurricane Gracie.

The 25-foot Nike-Cajun rocket was to boost a nose cone holding the camera to an altitude of 85 miles.

The cone was to fall into the ocean about 40 miles offshore.

A Navy destroyer waited to retrieve it.

Gracie, gradually losing punch

as she moved northward on a 200-mile front, was centered about 340 miles east of here. Her highest winds were bare hurricane force of 75 miles an hour.

Weather Bureau scientists hoped the camera, capable of photographing a 300-mile span of ocean, will provide the first pictures of a complete storm. In the past, cameras in planes and weather balloons have recorded only segments of storms.

If recovered, the film will be taken to laboratories in Washington for processing and study.

Officials said it probably will be a week before results are announced.

Telephone Mrs. John Leet, Biglerville 8

The following members of the staff of the B-H Times, Biglerville High School publication, accompanied by Roderick Laird of the faculty, visited the Harrisburg Patriot plant Tuesday evening: John Bierly, Sara Fox, Linda Hoffman, Donna Gilbert, Pete Asquith and Carl McDowell. The plant is celebrating its 10th anniversary in connection with the Sunday Patriot News and correspondents from Central Pennsylvania senior high schools were guests. Mr. Litchfield, manager of the Sunday correspondents, spoke on "Ways and Means of Reporting School Events to the Sunday News." After the talk, the group was taken on a tour of the plant and a buffet luncheon was served.

Introduced by Mrs. Monroe Dellinger, Mrs. Pitzer spoke on flower arranging and stressed the theme of finding the beautiful in the ordinary. As examples she used dried corn stalks combined with gay orange flowers to make a fall arrangement. For elegance she combined roses and driftwood or figurines. Simplicity was the keynote of all her displays.

For an arrangement, she said, design, color, proportion, and harmony to the surroundings and occasion are essential. She said that by changing the base of a particular arrangement one can change the period and mood so that it will fit into any room. For example, she displayed warm mahogany bases for a traditional or modern base or a bamboo base for a Japanese flavor.

Weighted Pin Holder

The biggest asset in arranging, she pointed out, is a weighted pin holder. This piece holds the flowers in place and provided its own base. While the pin holder is the only necessity, wire, tape and clay help in controlling the design.

She gave the club members several tips on arranging flowers. She stressed that flowers should be cut in the morning or evening and allowed to stand emersed in tepid water up to the bulb for six to eight hours before arranging. In doing this, she said, the flowers retain all the water they will need to stay alive and only require water at the end of the stem. Also the proportion of the flowers to the base should be one and one-half times the size of the base.

The Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, Arndtsville, is attending a Rural Church Seminar at the Lancaster Theological Seminary today. The seminar is directed by the Rev. Alfred C. Bartholomew, professor of rural church work at the Lancaster Seminar.

DELONE JVS LOSE OPENER TO M'DEVITT

Delone's junior varsity suffered a 28-0 setback at the hands of Bishop McDevitt in its opening game Thursday at Harrisburg.

The Crusaders scored twice in the first period, Jack Cunjak getting the first TD on a 15-yard run and John Rados adding the second on a 31-yard jaunt. Rados plowed for the first extra point while John McGlaughlin bolted over for the second.

A 22-yard dash by Cunjak produced another score for McDevitt in the second quarter.

There was no scoring in the third frame but the Crusaders added a safety and touchdown in the last period. The safety came when a Delone back was spilled behind his goal line by Spagnola and Roscoe.

John Minito plunged over from the two for the final tally.

LAWRENCE TO BATTLE SLASH OF HIS BUDGET

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Lawrence administration today mounted a full-scale offensive against the Republican Senate's plan to slash its $1,865,500 budget for 1959-61 by $8 million dollars.

In a rapid-fire series of statements, department heads at Gov. Lawrence's request soundly criticized the GOP fiscal stand.

Until Thursday, when the budget cuts were first made public, Lawrence had soft-pedaled his criticism of Republican lawmakers on fiscal matters. But the administration statements Thursday were reminiscent of the bitter battles Lawrence's predecessor, George Leader, had with the GOP during his term.

Predicts Deficit

Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horting, public welfare secretary, called proposed reductions in public assistance "a blow to all the people in need in Pennsylvania."

She said the 10-million-dollar reduction in relief appropriations would create a deficit long before the end of the current biennium "since the department is obligated by law to make relief payments to those in need." She said the steel strike had increased public assistance costs by an unanticipated $8 million dollars.

The public welfare budget reduction totaled $12,800,000.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, public instruction superintendent, complained there were calculated deficits in cuts made in his department. The education agency was the hardest hit under the GOP plan. Its appropriation would be slashed by $23,800,000.

William R. Davlin, commerce secretary, said the $9 million dollars trimmed from his industrial development and urban renewal (slum clearance) requests "would mean a virtual shutdown of the slum clearance urban renewal programs of Pennsylvania citizens and a marked slow-up in the job-making, industrial development program."

He warned it would mean abandonment or indefinite postponement of a majority of renewal projects in these cities: Scranton, Allentown, Bethlehem, Chester, Easton, Farrell, Harrisburg, Lancaster, Pittston, Philadelphia, Monaca, New Kensington, Reading, York, Turt Creek, and Pittsburgh.

Joseph Kennedy, mines secretary, said cuts in his department probably will have to be applied against planned expenditures for fighting coal mine fires.

Rites Held Today

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A bunched field of golfers — 24 of them under par in their first round — closely chased co-leaders Jack Fleck and Mason Rudolph today in the second round of the Golden Gate Championships.

Fleck and Rudolph with 67s held just a one-stroke advantage after the opening round of this $40,000 tournament Thursday.

Playing with a sore shoulder, Fleck toured the foggy 6,282-yard course in 4-under-par 35-32. Four years ago, in one of golf's biggest surprises, he won the National Open at the Olympic Club here.

Has Ailing Shoulder

Rudolph, 25-year-old former National Junior and Western Amateur champion from Clarksville, Tenn., matched Fleck with 34-33.

The 37-year-old Fleck, now playing out of Los Angeles, had a doctor look at his ailing shoulder after the round, but said he would continue in the tournament.

Pressing the leaders were busy Jim Ferrier, Art Wall Jr., Fred Hawkins, Tommy Bolt, Don Whitt, Jim Ferree, Bob Goalby, Ernie Vossler and George Schenck.

TWO BOYS ROB
BANK OF $500

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE Ohio (AP) — Stealing from a bank is a pretty big project for grown-up criminals. But two boys, one 12 and the other 13, didn't find it so hard at the Washington Savings Bank here.

They stole from the bank once, but five times, and got about $500 in all, according to Probation Officer Don Thompson of Juvenile Court.

Thompson said the boys, committing the thefts over a two- or three-week period while on errands for their parents, did it simply by sliding their hands under the cage of a teller's window and removing bills. There was no real carelessness on the part of the bank, authorities said, because only a small hand could slip under the opening.

The boys bought a motor scooter with part of the loot — each explaining to his parents that the other boy had bought it.

They also spent a lot of the money playing pinball machines. Police are looking for the pinball machines. They're illegal here.

Names were withheld.

LENS, France (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle stuck his head through a closed window today and had a narrow escape from shattered glass.

Moving forward impulsively to greet cheering children, the touring French President failed to note the window was closed and broke the plane with his head.

Members of his party said the President suffered no injuries.

MANILA (AP) — The United States has indicated willingness to go along with a Philippine demand for a drastic cutback in the 99-year leases on U.S. military bases here, well-informed sources said today. They did not say how much shorter the leases would be. The Philippines has been plugging for 25-year terms renewable every five years.

STERNER RITES HELD

Funeral services for Maurice M. Sterner, 65, Biglerville R. 1, who died Monday morning at his home near Table Rock, were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St. The Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat, Biglerville Lutheran pastor, officiated. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery at Arentsville. The pallbearers were William H. Snyder, J. Frank Feiser, Clair Slagle, Charles C. HONOR CARROLL SHOE WORKER

Leland Millett was honored at a testimonial and farewell luncheon party Thursday during the noon hour at the Carroll Shoe Company, Newark St., Littlestown. He is completing 25 years of service as a mechanic with the company, and will return to his home city, Lincoln, Me., in the near future to reside with his mother.

Reports presented at the meeting showed the society spent $2,983 in the last year, a little more than it received from its annual seal campaign in the spring. The largest single item was $755 for new braces or brace repairs for crippled youngsters. Summer camping fees for five county boys and girls at Camp Easter Seal came to $370. Special shoes for youngsters under care of the society totaled $363 with parents in some cases paying part of the bill.

Helped 98 Crippled

Other expense items included: $72.50 for transportation of children to clinics or hospitals, $104 to pledge to Camp Lend-a-Hand, $389 for seal sale expenses and $696 to the state crippled children's society and research. Mrs. Bigham distributed mimeographed copies of the society's annual report showing 98 crippled children and five adults aided in the last year.

Charles Freeland, field man for the state society, attended Thursday's meeting and spoke of the summer camping program for children. He also told of a new 10-day summer camp at Camp Daddy Allen being held each August for handicapped adults.

The resignation of Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, who recently moved to Durham, N.C., was announced and a letter of appreciation for his services was directed to be sent to the former society president. His place on the board will be filled in November.

Mrs. Edgar K. Markley will head the 1960 Easter seal sale, it was announced by Mrs. Bigham. Other committee assignments will be made later.

The society renewed its membership with a $5 payment to the Adams County Council of Community Services. After an explanation by Richard P. Keagle of the state employment service the society voted to join in sponsoring "Employ the Handicapped Week" here.

Mrs. Bigham reported on sessions of the annual state convention and Miss Ellen Miller, secretary, attended in Harrisburg in May and told of a June trip by a group of board members to the York cerebral palsy center.

12 SOONERS
ARE STRICKEN

CHICAGO (AP) — Oklahoma's hopes for a victory in its first encounter with a Big Ten football team were dealt a severe blow when 12 Sooners became violently ill at a Chicago night club Thursday night.

In the meantime, state officials have set up a center here to study reports from physicians throughout New Jersey who have treated suspected cases of the disease.

Certain Mosquitoes

Eastern equine encephalitis is the particular strain of the virus suspected. Certain mosquitoes carry the virus and it is they who bring it to humans.

For this reason, Dr. Roscoe P. Kandie, state health commissioner, has asked New Jerseyans to kill adult mosquitoes, use screens, nets and repellents, and prevent exposure to mosquitoes in woodland areas.

Another health department official, Dr. William J. Dougherty, said there is known vaccine or drug which effectively combats encephalitis.

He told a newsman that the most physicians can do is try to keep a patient's temperature down and give him oxygen when necessary.

In explaining the disease Dougherty said:

"Encephalitis means inflammation of the brain. It is an invasion of the white cells in brain tissue. The coma and drowsiness which often accompany the disease resulted in the name of 'sleeping sickness.'

Disease Varies

"There are several viruses which can cause this disease. There are eastern and western equine, Japanese encephalitis, Russian spring and summer encephalitis, and there is one strain common to Venezuela.

"We don't know how long it takes to run its course because we haven't had much experience treating it so far."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

College Opens 113th Sessions Thursday Morning: In his annual address at the opening of Gettysburg college for the 113th year Thursday morning, Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of the college, challenged the student body to prepare on the campus for lives of unselfish service.

"For the first time since the Renaissance, there is a really great chance for the right kind of leadership to turn the world to a new and better day that will be worthy of the millions that died to make it possible," Doctor Hanson declared.

The address was delivered at the formal opening exercises in Bräu chapel at 11 o'clock where a civilian student body of about 350 — two thirds of them coeds — nearly filled the front section of the auditorium. Twenty-five faculty members took their places on the platform after an academic procession from Glafelter Hall.

Classes began Friday morning at 7:45 o'clock for the civilian students while the 200 17-year-old ASTP students continued work they began early in the summer.

News Is Slow in New York: They haven't learned in New York, as yet, that the Emmitsburg railroad, primarily built to serve St. Joseph's college and Emmitsburg and vicinity, has been abandoned and the tracks torn up, although this took place several years ago.

Recently Mrs. James Tucker and her daughter, of Boston, left their home for Emmitsburg by rail. In New York they purchased tickets to Emmitsburg via the old Emmitsburg railroad.

When the New Englanders arrived at Emmitsburg Junction they found a worn out railway station but no railroad, not even a track. They then learned that the railroad had been abandoned several years ago.

They were enroute to St. Joseph's college where Miss Tucker was to be enrolled as a student. Guy Baker, who operates a mail and express truck between Emmitsburg Junction and Emmitsburg, came to the rescue of the Tuckers and drove them to the college.

Black Walnut District Adds 98 Scouts: A total of 98 new Boy Scouts, making a net gain of 41, have been enrolled in the Black Walnut district of the York-Adams area council since the beginning of the year it was shown in a report issued today by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, chairman of the district.

Pfc. Warman Is Wounded in France, Sept. 8: Pfc. Clayton D. Warman, 19-year-old son of Arthur W. Warman, East Middle street, was seriously wounded in action in France on September 8 while fighting with an infantry unit of General Patton's Third Army, his father was advised in a War Department telegram this morning.

Associated Press news dispatches on that day placed the Third Army 20 miles from Germany and said Patton's forces had established five bridgeheads across the Moselle, last water barrier before the Saar basin.

Pvt. Orner Is Wounded Twice Within 90 Days: Struck by the same kind of stuff that inflicted wounds June 1 in Italy that kept him out of action for a month, Pvt. Roland E. Orner, 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Orner, Shady Acres, Gettysburg R. 4, was seriously wounded in action in France September 2, his parents have learned from a war department telegram and letters from the wounded soldier.

Sgt. C. S. Smith Is Wounded in France, Sept. 8: Sgt. Charles S. "Sam" Smith, 24-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Smith, Gettysburg R. 5, near Granite Station, who was slightly wounded in France in mid-July, now has been seriously wounded in France, according to a War Department telegram received by his parents.

Today's TalkJUST BE PLEASANT

Who among us has not welcomed and doted on the pleasant person? What a gift to life! How often have I thought of that little grave, somewhere in New England, where a child is buried, but with these words cut into the simple monument: "She was so pleasant."

What a wonderful trait to be remembered by — "She was so pleasant!" I feel very sure that her young life will be long remembered — and how she must have been loved by those of her family and friends.

It's the good deeds and the lovable qualities that live long after a great character is called away from earth. These qualities are what count most and are most important. Nothing in life is greater than to have been loved, and to have distributed this love far and wide. I recently watched a group of humming birds feasting upon the sweets of a garden of flowers. I wondered if angels were like this and sought the sweets in human character. I wonder if Heaven might swarm with angelic humming birds!

"She was so pleasant." Who wouldn't welcome such a sincere and inspiring tribute? Being pleasant is such a simple thing. It takes no sacrifice to accomplish it, and it could easily draw a choice multitude of others to join such a discovery as an ordinary person who, too, might be famous just for being pleasant! Just be pleasant. There are many who undoubtedly may be awaiting this moment at your front door. Leave it unlocked!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "A Bedtime Prayer."

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The San Francisco Giants, their hopes for the National League pennant dwindling, open a three-game series with the St. Louis Cardinals tonight.

So far the Giants, in third place two games behind Milwaukee and Los Angeles with three to go, have won 15 of 19 from the Redbirds.

To stay alive, they must win the next three while both the Braves and Dodgers lose two of their remaining three.

Rigney Determined

"As long as there's a slim straw in the wind, we'll clutch at it," says Manager Bill Rigney.

"The boys will give it all they have all three games here," he said. "There's second place money to consider, too, you know."

The last week has been a nightmare for Rigney and his players.

Seen Backsliding

They've seen their once-principled two-game lead pulverized by the Dodgers and the troublesome Chicago Cubs who together saddled the Giants with an inopportune five-game losing streak.

The Giants' pitching, lacking in depth and a reliever of the Joe Page stripe, wobbled and finally collapsed, dragging the hitting with it.

There are those who feel that Rigney went to the well too often for Sad Sam Jones, the ex-Cardinal right-hander whose stock reply to questions about his arm is, "It's broke."

Rigney will start either Jones or Jack Sanford (15-12) tonight. It'll be Vinegar Bend Mizell (13-9) for the Redbirds.

CHICAGO (AP) — The days of a subway World Series may be gone but the closest thing — a Lake Michigan series — may be in the works.

Chief designer? The Chicago Cubs, National League rivals of the American League champion Chicago White Sox.

Chicagoans and much of the Midwest are pulling for a White Sox-Milwaukee Braves meeting in the series.

Final Deadline

This is better than an even bet with Los Angeles and Milwaukee deadlocked for first place heading into the season's final weekend.

The Cubs, who virtually threw the final clod of dirt on San Francisco's pennant chances, will again be cast as spoilers when they meet the flag-chasing Dodgers today at Wrigley Field.

While the Dodgers play a three-game series with the Cubs, the Braves entertain the Philadelphia Phils.

The two won their semifinal matches Thursday. Duds a. of North Hills Country Club, eliminated Al Nelson, Whitford CC, Downingtown, 1 up. Penecale, of Whitemarsh Valley, defeated Skeggs, Radnor Valley, 3 and 2.

Bullets, Bisons Collide In Bowl Game At Hershey Saturday To Open Season

A pair of time-honored athletic rivals, Gettysburg and Bucknell, will inaugurate their 1959 football campaigns when they clash in the 12th annual Rotary Bowl classic in Hershey Stadium Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

This will be the sixth meeting between the school in the bowl affair, sponsored by the Harrisburg Rotary Club for the benefit of its charity fund. Gettysburg holds a 3-2 edge in the bowl games and last year eked out a 6-0 win. "Experts" rate this year's clash as a toss-up.

Saturday's game will mark the 44th clash between the teams in a series which began in 1893. Bucknell leads 27-14 while two games ended in ties.

According to the advance sale of tickets here, the Bullets will have a large aching of fans. Over 1,000 members of the student body will attend.

Face Fine Passer

One of the prime objectives for the Bullets will be stopping the aerial tosses of Paul Terhes, veteran Bucknell quarterback, who topped the Middle Atlantic Conference last year in that department as well as in total offense.

Coach Bob O'Dell rates his Bucknell outfit as definitely stronger than a year ago, thanks to a group of newcomers who have stepped up from last year's freshman outfit.

The Bison's have 15 lettermen and are captained by Larry Mathias, 180-pound senior center.

According to O'Dell his forward starting line will be composed of six veterans and one newcomer. Vets include: Ends, Cox, 185, and Eacius, 190; tackle, Pratzwell, 210; guards, Berfeld, 200, and Rinaldo, 184, and center, Mathias. The lone newcomer is Dick Bourdeau, 215 junior tackle.

In addition to Terhes the backfield will include Hettche, 180; Melberger, 190, and Pope, 168. Tough Battle Seen

Gene Haas, Bullet mentor, reports his squad in good physical and mental condition for the opener. "We are expecting a typical hard-fought Gettysburg-Bucknell game. There is no question both squads will be 'up' for the scrap," said Haas, "and we are preparing for a real tough battle."

Gettysburg has one questionable starter. He is Ernie Velten, hard-running 185-pound junior halfback. If Velten is forced to the sidelines he will be replaced by Redding Hicks, 160-pound junior.

Probable starters for the Bullets will be: Ends, Ron Frederick, 185, and Clet Knight, 205; tackles, Mike Pacilio, 200, and Frank Woodruff, 220; guards, Jim Hess, 195, and Frank Temme, 175; center, Tom O'Malley, 190; quarterback, Ed Books, 175; halfbacks, Ernie Velten or Hicks, and Eddie Lucas, 165, and fullback, Dick Davyodick, 190.

Included in the "second" unit will be Earl Little, sophomore quarterback, who formerly starred at Gettysburg High School.

Bands To Perform

Elaborate programs prior to the kickoff and during halftime have been planned by the Gettysburg and Bucknell bands.

With the Bullets listed as the "home" team, Gettysburg fans will occupy the west stands of the stadium.

The Gettysburg-Bison game will be one of two Middle Atlantic Conference games this week. Lehigh will play at Delaware in the other league scrap.

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The 1959 world modern pentathlon championships open here tonight amid a splash of color and pageantry befitting the Olympic Games.

Fair and generally mild weather was promised for the kickoff of the international sports event which has attracted outstanding athletes from 13 nations, including defending champion Soviet Russia.

Other nations entered are: Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Great Britain, Italy, Sweden, Finland, Switzerland, Germany, Mexico and the United States.

Win Breaks Tie

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Milwaukee plays its last three games at home against the cellar-dwelling Phillies. Injured Johnny Logan is ready to reclaim his shortstop job. Billy Bruton may be able to play. Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn and Bob Buhl, the big three of the staff, are due in that order. Los Angeles, tied with the Braves for the National League lead, must finish on the road.

For these reasons the Braves are 5 to 8 favorites to win their third straight pennant.

Burdette (21-14) has had four days of rest to get ready for tonight's series opener at County Stadium.

Win Breaks Tie

Long before game time (8 p.m.), the Braves will know whether a victory would give them the undisputed lead or just continue the tie. The Dodgers play at Delone, and Biglerville at Juniata Joint. Littlestown meets Red Lion Saturday afternoon at Red Lion.

BLACK LEADS BIGLERVILLE JR. HI TO WIN

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

It's Don Drysdale, working in a jinx park, for Los Angeles and Lew Burdette, facing a club he hasn't been able to beat since May, for Milwaukee as the National League pennant race barrels into the final weekend looking like it'll never end.

Drysdale faces the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field today for the Dodgers, deadlocked with Milwaukee for first place with three to play.

The Braves, playing a night game, will have either a psychological lift or a grim reminder—depending on the Dodger result on the scoreboard—when they go against last place Philadelphia at Milwaukee.

Three-way Tie Possible

The race could end in a tie between the Braves and the Dodgers. They then would meet in a Milwaukee Monday, to settle which one will meet Chicago's American League champion White Sox in the World Series.

The San Francisco Giants could make it a three-way tie for first.

Going into their final three games at St. Louis tonight, the Giants are hobbling with a five-game losing string, their longest of the season. To gain a tie, the Giants will have to sweep the Cardinals and pray the Dodgers and Braves each lose twice.

The Yankees, playing Baltimore, need just one more victory to nail it—their lowest finish since 1945.

Cleveland's Cal McLish shoots for his 20th victory in the second game of a twi-night pair with Kansas City. Washington is at Boston with the Senators' Bob Allison needing one home run to tie the AL rookie record of 31 set in 1939 by Ted Williams.

East BerlinLIONS HONOR
MANAGER OF LITTLE LEAGUE

The first Ladies Night of the season was held by the East Berlin Lions Club Tuesday evening in Zwingli Church hall with 16 members and their ladies present. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner were guests of the club. Warner was honored for his work as manager of the club's Little League ball team this past summer.

The Rev. Carlton Howells was also a guest of the club and sang several numbers, accompanied on the piano by Gerald Mumford. Group singing was led by Glenn Cashman, chairman arranging for the ladies night program was Donald Moul.

The business session was in charge of the president, Sherman Krall. It was pointed out that the drive for used eyeglasses will continue through the month of October. Any person wishing to donate used glasses may do so by giving same to any member of the club.

Plan Lamp Sale

Glenn Cashman, chairman of the activities committee, outlined the proposed light bulb sale to be conducted by the club in the community. The time for the door-to-door campaign will be announced when the bulbs have arrived.

The club decided again to sell Christmas trees this year. The committee to arrange for this project is Charles Spangler, chairman; C. Arthur Bowers, Ralph Boyer, Ralph Eisenhart and Richard Riggs.

The assessment of $1.50 per member toward the Beacon Lodge building program was approved.

No Immediate Action Is Seen On Susquehanna River Shad Fishways

Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Pennsylvania delegation has been told considerable time will be required to determine the feasibility of building fishways for migratory shad on the Susquehanna River.

"We are all after good fishing in the Susquehanna," James T. McBroom, chief of river basins studies for the Interior Department's Fish and Wildlife Service, said Thursday. "But we wouldn't want to see money spent to build a monument of stupidity which the fish may not want to use."

Shad In Favor

The delegation, including members of the Pennsylvania General Assembly and the State Fish Commission, expressed belief that shad—long gone from the Upper Susquehanna—are eager to make their instinctive way up the river at spawning time.

To enable the fish—which once were the backbone of a flourishing commercial fishing industry in central Pennsylvania—to move upstream some action must be taken at Conowingo Dam, the delegation said. The dam poses a barrier which the fish, moving from Chesapeake Bay, are unable to clear.

Huge Quantity

"Shad throw themselves against the dam," said Basse A. Beck, general manager of the Sunbury Daily Item. "At certain times the fish are so thick you can cross the water by walking on them." Beck acted as principal spokesman for the delegation.

Beck said a bill is before the state Legislature to direct the Fish Commission to provide $75,000 for an engineering survey of ways to enable the fish to surmount the dam. The Senate-approved bill is now before the House.

Study Underway

McBroom said a biological study to determine if shad should be returned to the upper Susquehanna has been undertaken by the Boston regional office of the Fish and Wildlife Service.

He said the study would be coordinated with any state might undertake. McBroom said the service also will cooperate with fish study efforts of the Philadelphia Electric Co., now being carried on at Conowingo. The dam is operated by the Philadelphia utility.

"We took the country from the Indians and the power companies took the river from us," Beck said. "If we can't get together on the engineering and biological studies we might as well give it all to Khrushchev."

Time Ripe

State Rep. Harris G. Breth (D—Clearfield) said the "time is ripe" for both the biological and engineering studies and that Maryland will cooperate.

Possible ways of getting the fish around or over the dam include a fish ladder of the type used in the far West, or a canal or canals bypassing Conowingo and othe-

EX-PRISONER KILLS HIS WIFE, WOUNDS SELF

NEWPORT, Pa. (AP)—"I want my daughter, Sue ... I'm going to shoot her."

Ex-convict Philip Benson, 52, uttered these words Thursday night, a neighbor said, as he staggered wounded into the back yard of his home in nearby Oliver Twp.

The neighbor, Lester Witmyer, who had gone outside to investigate after hearing two shots, asked Benson: "Where's Mrs. Benson?"

"She's in there. I shot her head off ... I'm going to shoot the whole family," Witmyer quoted Benson as saying.

Witmyer found the body of Mrs. Benson, 53, sprawled over a bed in her bedroom. A .32-caliber rifle and two spent shells were nearby. Mrs. Benson died of a head wound.

Wounded Himself

State Police Cpl. Joseph Kerwin said that Benson shot his wife, then wounded himself. Kerwin said officers are investigating the possibility that Benson shot himself accidentally, possibly by slipping in a pool of blood and causing the weapon to discharge.

Benson was admitted to the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital with severe wounds of the right side of the face.

His 10-year-old daughter, Sue, had been playing at Witmyer's home at the time of the shooting. The Bensons also have two sons. Oscar, 16, is at the White Hill Industrial School for Boys, a correctional institution. James, 11, is at the Pennhurst State School for retarded children.

Had Been Drinking

Sheriff Lester Fuller said that neighbors reported that Benson had been drinking. Kerwin added that an argument audible to neighbors preceded the shooting. Neither he nor the sheriff elaborated.

Fuller said that Benson was released several months ago from the Allegheny County Prison. According to Fuller, Benson had served time for pointing a deadly weapon at a Newport police officer.

berland Twp. Planning Commission spoke of the importance of a zoning ordinance in Gettysburg borough. "Our whole zoning operation can be completely circumvented if Gettysburg does nothing. We can zone but we can have it made useless if critical areas should ask annexation to the borough and thus dodge our zoning rules." He said there have been some indications that such steps might be taken on some fringe areas. "Cumberland is taking steps to go ahead with real zoning," he said as he declared again the need for complementary action by the borough.

E. Donald Scott, president of the county commissioners who also form the institution district board, was spokesman for that group. He assured the gathering of the commissioners' willingness to cooperate in every way they can. He pointed out that, while the commissioners individually wish to see the battlefield preserved, their individual wishes are not important. He said they are bound by state law. "We would like to see the field preserved, but we can't do it," he said. He and Mr. Oyler agreed that the commissioners will have to have the money from the land sales "within the next year" to pay for new county home construction work soon to get underway.

The discussion opened with Attorney Oyler reviewing the background of the land controversy and its present status. Persistent grand jury criticism of the old county home brought appointment of an advisory committee to study needs. They suggested a new home financed by the sale of farm land. The county went out of the farming business, sold its machinery and livestock and prepared to sell land when the Park Service interests appeared.

He also pointed out that county land can only be sold with court approval and that can be secured only when the county is receiving the best price possible on land on which no price-hurting restrictions have been placed.

Attorney John A. MacPhail, who represented the Cumberland Twp. supervisors and planning commission, said that the township authorities had felt zoning and planning were needed there and a "good thing" before the county home land complications arose.

Discussion brought out statements showing that, when zoning is accomplished, land cannot be designated for strictly agricultural purposes, thus zoning could not save county home land from development as residential areas.

It was also indicated that the Park Service may not be specially interested in more than about 60 acres of the county farm. Areas east of the Harrisburg road and an eight-acre strip on the west side of that road can be sold without disturbing Park Service plans, it was reported.

The county already has sold an option for a supermarket on a part of the land east of the Harrisburg Rd., after inducing the prospective buyer to accept that site rather than one on park-sought land along the Biglerville Rd. and Howard Ave.

Someone in the group asked if the National Park might be willing to trade a largely undeveloped 21 acres of park land near the country club for part of the county home tract. Assistant Park Superintendent S. G. Sollenberger said the Park Service will look into possible tracts for a land exchange.

A question was raised about the possibility of some form of federal compensation to Cumberland Twp. for the 2,700 acres of its land now in the park and nontaxable. Congressman Quigley said any such move would take "a lot of lobbying and a lot of selling." He suggested that if such a plan were developed here it likely would have to apply to park holdings everywhere.

U. S. Senator Hugh Scott sent a telegram of regret for his inability to attend. Senator Clark's representative was Abraham A. Dash.

BAKER SERVICES HELD

Funeral services for Myrtle G. Baker, 59, Biglerville R. 1, who died Monday evening, were held this morning, meeting at the Bender Funeral Home at 9 o'clock to go to St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church in Buchanan Valley for a Requiem Mass. GLENNY TELLS OF STATE GAME

Game Protector Paul Glenny spoke on wildlife in the state and showed a film on wild turkeys at a meeting of the Adams County Senior Extension Club in Bendersville Thursday evening.

Duane Duncan, assistant Adams County farm agent, urged members to participate in three forthcoming events of interest. They are:

A four-state young men and women's conference will be held at Jackson Mill, W. Va., October 9, 10 and 11. On the same dates a New England young people's conference will be held in Pembroke, N. H. On October 23 and 24 a Senior Extension conference will be held at Pennsylvania State University. Reservations for the Senior Extension conference must be made by October 17, Duncan said.

William Lehman, sports director for the club, reported on bowling activities. Vice President Richard Weaver reported the club won a second place prize with its exhibits at the South Mountain Fair.

Vice President Weaver, who presided in the absence of President J. Glenn Miller, introduced these guests at the meeting: Emma Keller, Mary Jane Bowman, Philip Nace and Harold Ray.

AWARDS GIVEN AT PACK SHOW

Awards of rank were presented and prizes were awarded in a pet show at the meeting of Cub Pack 76 of Fairfield at the Fairfield fire hall Thursday evening.

Assistant Cubmaster Carl Filsinger Jr. presented the Bobcat badge to Douglas Newman and Frederick Crist. The Wolf badge was presented Charles Carbaugh.

Two skits were given by Den 5 under direction of the Den Mother, Mrs. Kermit Spence. One was entitled "The Doggie Story" and the other "The Pet Skit."

Lynn Newman led the group in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Cubmaster Paul Crist spoke on next month's theme "Aesop's Fables" and urged attendance by adults at the Cub Scout leaders powwow October 3 from 1 to 5:30 p.m. at Windsor Twp. School in York County. Assistant Cubmaster Filsinger announced a paper drive will be held Friday, October 23, and that the next Pack meeting on October 22 will be a costumed Halloween party.

The source said the trial was put off indefinitely.

Another Effort

There was no suggestion that the experiment had been called off permanently.

An Air Force spokesman said the firing may prove the feasibility of using air-launched ballistic missiles to intercept any enemy satellite that might spy on this country.

The satellite would be traveling at its highest speed—26,000 miles an hour—and the likelihood of getting the much slower supersonic missile near it seemed small. The satellite slows down at the top of its orbit, and its average speed for the complete circuit is 18,000 m.p.h.

Mrs. Blocher also reported 3,570 persons received information on cancer through films and literature in 31 clubs, church groups and organizations and in addition four of the seven high schools in the county used both films and slides with the cancer literature.

A total of 5,640 pieces of educational literature were distributed at meetings and schools. A total of 14,000 pieces of literature were distributed during the Cancer Crusade in which 689 volunteers visited homes throughout the county.

Research Project

There was a discussion on plans for a nationwide cancer research project. Approximately half the money raised by the county group each year goes to support the national research program.

Local expenditures during the year totaled $5,498. Among larger outlays were $609 for medication, $522 for nursing service, $191 for special projects including equipment for the tumor clinic, $146 for loan closet supplies, $627 for transportation of indigent patients, $215 for education material, $616 for a new typewriter and a projector and screen to show educational films, $1,500 for salaries and other sums for office equipment, supplies, postage, insurance, films, publications, training, etc.

People Are On Mission Through Life'

By LAMONT A. WOELK
Pastor, Fairfield Mennonite Church

High in the Rocky Mountains we found the place we were looking for. When we started up the 10-mile road from the little town of West Cliff we didn't know where it would lead; it ended 10,000 feet up the mountain at an abandoned copper mine. There was no other evidence of human existence except the steep rocky road, little more than a cowpath, that led us there.

Here the air was cool and pure. Here one could relax and be calm. And here we drank of the fresh, sweet water that was beginning its journey as a mountain stream down to the plains below.

Promise Of Life

But how this water was to change! Here it flowed slowly, peacefully; it would gain momentum as it went tumbling downward over the rocks. Here it was clean and good to drink; it would pick up dirt and debris until, by the time it reached the river bed on the plains, it would be quite muddy and unfit to drink. Here it offered the promise of life; it was eventually to lose itself on the dry parched plains of southeastern Colorado.

This water was on a mission. As it made its winding, tumbling way to the plains, the animals and birds of the forest would find refreshment at its banks.

Homes For Animals

Some of it would flow into side pools providing homes for trout and beavers. Reaching the plains, it would water the countryside, making the farm crops grow. The farmer's animals were to find cool relief from the heat of the summer in its flow. And, finally, it was to spend itself completely in one grand effort trying to make the desert bloom.

We dream of remaining in such a mountain retreat paradise to live lives of enchantment and think magnificent thoughts. But we, like the water, are each on a mission — a mission that involves us in the world of everyday living and, if we are true to our calling as Christians, will cost us our lives.

"Children Of God"

We, as children of God, are to live in the world and present His offer of life to all people. To do this we must mingle with people, knowing them at their best and at their worst, and we cannot avoid getting involved in the problems and troubles of life that surround everyone.

But we, like the water, need never lose the life-giving quality of our lives. To become involved in the world of everyday living does not mean giving in to the troubles that surround, and often perplex, us. Instead, this quality is to be the strength and light within our own lives to help us over the rough spots, and a source of strength and inspiration to those about us.

Our lives should cut a course through the world like a stream of water, leaving a path of influence in its wake. It may be only giving cup of cold water to the thirsty; or it may be offering the Bread of Life to the hungry. And when we have poured out our lives completely, they are lost, not in the sands of time, but in the completeness of God's eternal love.

How Christian Science Heals

"The Truth Shall Make You Free"

Mr. Calvary EUB

Sunday School at 7 p.m.; worship with sermon at 7:30 p.m.

Fred spends about 1,000 hours each year in school. When he graduates from high school he will have sat in classrooms for 12,000 hours.

Plus homework Miss Harkins assigned nine pages of science today. Mr. Brent expects a book report tomorrow. And so it goes every school day—every year.

Don't let Fred's crowded school roster worry you. He is getting an education—the fine education every American child is entitled to. Let Fred's empty spiritual roster worry you. He is spending ZERO hours in Church School. He is getting NO religious education. And his tragedy is shared by MILLIONS OF AMERICAN YOUTH.

A new kind of homework is needed. By friendly encouragement, by sincere interest, by the example of our own families in faithful church life—we must inspire the Freds and their parents to take advantage of the spiritual opportunities that America's churches offer.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ROD SERLING IS NO LONGER AN ANGRY MAN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Rod Serling, one of the earliest and loudest of television's angry young men, is angry no more.

For years he engaged in a running battle with agencies and sponsors over his right as an author to say what he wanted in the way he wanted.

"I'm no longer an angry young man," smiled the dark-haired, 34-year-old ex-combat paratrooper. "Now I'm merely a petulant, aging man."

Simmered Down

Actually, Rod, who probably has run up more "firsts" than any other TV writer, has simmered down because he feels he has won success without losing his freedom.

"My philosophy is to please as many people as I can—without selling out to them," he said.

Serling makes his debut in a new role Oct. 2 as executive producer of a weekly series of odd, offbeat and sometimes eerie tales of adventure in the realm of the imagination.

"Makes Me A Star"

He has written 21 of the first 26 stories himself, and will also act as host and narrator for the series.

"That makes me a star, I guess," he said cheerfully. "It will also give him three or four salaries, plus later residuals. These rerun rights are highly important today. They are bringing some writers from $25,000 to $75,000 a year."

Serling won a $500 prize for a radio script while still a student at Antioch College in Ohio in 1948, then wrote 40 more scripts that didn't sell.

He quit a $90 a week job with a Cincinnati radio station when he asked for a $10 raise and was turned down.

"Life's Good To Me"

For two "lean but happy years" he and his wife—he married his college sweetheart—lived in a trailer until he began to click as a free lance.

"I got $100 for my first half-hour TV script," he recalled. "Writers are better paid now. The fee for a half-hour show today is from $2,000 to $4,000."

Altogether he has sold more than 100 TV scripts and six screen plays.

"I've got two healthy children and a good wife, and I can't conceive of anything else a person could hunger for," he said.

"I'm not in rebellion against anything. What can I rebel against? Life has been too good to me."

IN 19 HOLDUPS

WOODBRIDGE, N.J. (AP)—There was a perfectly logical reason why Joseph Freda didn't rob anybody in Perth Amboy, although he admitted he had participated in 19 holdups around here.

"Didn't find any place to park," he told police Thursday, as they booked him for armed robbery.

Burning Cross Chases Family

CLEVELAND, Tenn. (AP)—A cross burning in their front yard apparently frightened a white married couple into leaving Bradley County four days after the wife was arrested in the company of a Negro.

Sheriff Paul Jones said the woman and the Negro were arrested when found together in a car parked in an isolated area.

Deputy Leroy Pippenger said he escorted Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baxter, both about 30, and their infant child to the Polk County jail at their request Thursday, shortly after the cross burning.

Mrs. Baxter was fined $15 Monday for possessing whisky in a dry county. The Negro, Elbert Smart, was fined $40 for possessing whisky and being intoxicated.

CONTRAST IN GRANDMOTHER TYPES IN D. C.

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Well, now, let's compare grandmothers.

The American public seems to be overcome with sentiment at the idea that Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev is a grandmother. Feature stories abound with such adjectives as kind, gentle, motherly and modest. All true, no doubt.

Mrs. Khrushchev's official hostess on her current American tour, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, is also a grandmother. The two women provide a dramatic study in contrasts.

She's Typical

The youthful-looking, beautifully groomed Emily Sears Lodge is typical of the ageless and active American woman, who is careful of her appearance as a matter of course, who doesn't consider it a sin to use lipstick or wear high heels, and who takes advantage of modern aids to youth and beauty.

Another striking contrast is Mrs. Khrushchev's White House hostess, Mamie Eisenhower, a grandmother, too. Her age is probably about the same as that of the Soviet Union's first lady. Yet she looks a good 20 years younger, thanks to smart clothes, careful grooming, care of her figure and her own evident zest for life.

Form Of Propaganda

One ardent crusader for youth at any age speaks her mind on this subject. Says Lilly Dache, the volatile French-born designer: "I think Mrs. Khrushchev's obvious inattention to fashion, hair-styling and makeup is a form of propaganda. Perhaps she wants to give the impression that she does not care about such things. Surely there could be no other good reason for presenting such a picture to the world."

HICKIE "EXCELLENT"

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Gov. Joe Hickie's condition was described as excellent today after a two-hour operation Thursday for removal of a severely inflamed gall bladder.

"Did not find any place to park," he told police Thursday, as they booked him for armed robbery.

DENTAL CARE PLAN TESTED AT YORK, PA.

By DICK WEEGHMAN

YORK, Pa. (AP)—A new dental care group insurance plan to ease the financial hurt after the toothache is undergoing an experiment here. It could set a pattern for the nation.

It began, appropriately, with the Dentist's Supply Co. of York. Both the Pennsylvania Dental Assn. and the State Insurance Commission believe it is the first of its kind in the nation.

1,200 Covered

In effect for only a few weeks, the plan places most of the cost burden of dental care on the company, which instigated the program for its workers on a three-year experimental basis.

Approximately 1,200 employees and their families are covered by the plan, which provides for, on a cost share basis, annual dental examinations and other dental work including orthodontics (correcting tooth irregularities).

During the first year of the policy the patient pays the first $25 of his dental bill. The company foots the expense for 80 per cent of the remainder, and the patient pays the other 20 per cent.

Yearly Limits

In the succeeding two years the $25 deductible is cut to $10. Care for each individual under the plan is limited to $200 a year; for each family, $500. The patient pays no deductible for the yearly examinations.

Henry M. Thornton, company president, said he decided to pioneer in the field of dental care protection "because if industry doesn't come up with a scheme like this, the government surely will."

"One of the most important aspects of this plan," he added, "is that each patient will still choose his own dentist, who will diagnose, plan and administer treatment."

NAME SWIM COACH

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Temple University Wednesday announced the appointment of Joe Verdeur as its swimming coach to succeed Mac Strow. Verdeur held virtually every breaststroke record in the late 1940's and early 1950's when he competed for LaSalle college. He is a public school teacher now working for his master's degree at Temple.

HIKE FHA RATE

WASHINGTON (AP) — A boost in the top interest rate on Federal Housing Administration loans has followed President Eisenhower's signing of a third-time housing bill.

The FHA announced the increase from 5 1/4 to 5 3/4 per cent in the permissible interest rate on home mortgages it insures. It means higher monthly payments for home purchasers, but is expected to make it easier for them to obtain the loans.

LANDSCAPING IS THEME FOR TALK TO CLUB

John Naugle, assistant, county farm agent, was guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and Vicinity Wednesday evening in the social hall of the Eagles' home on West King St.

Mr. Naugle was introduced by Malva Duttera, chairman of the Conservation and Garden committee, which was in charge of the evening's program. His topic was "Landscaping." With the help of slide pictures, he explained the basic principles of planting, pruning and general care of shrubbery and trees. A question and answer period followed the talk.

The business meeting was in charge of president, Mrs. Robert J. Eckenerode. Reports were heard from Mrs. Chester S. Byers and Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, the latter acting treasurer. Mrs. Edward T. Richardson Sr. reported for the cheer committee and Mrs. C. Wayne Purdue and Mrs. Robert J. Stonestifer gave the auditor's report.

Ask Help On Drive

Mrs. Alvin J. Groft, chairman of the Girl Scout Committee, requested members to assist with the annual drive for funds to be held in October as volunteer canvassers. The Legislation and Citizenship committee, Mrs. Roy D. Renner, chairman, were requested to review the club by-laws and to report suggested changes at the October meeting.

A thank-you note from Paul E. King, supervising principal of the Littlestown Joint School System, was read following the donation of $175 made by the club to the Band Uniform Fund. The letter said $3,012.67 had been received to date, leaving a deficit in the fund of approximately $2,000.

Mrs. Anna B. Leach, who had been appointed to secure information in the Federation community achievement contests announced that there are prizes totaling $65,000, offered, and $10,000 of this will be awarded to an individual club, in the United States. It was also noted that if the club enters and receives nothing, it will still count toward a possible award for the state federation. A decision concerning entering the contest will be made at a later meeting.

Display Club Award

A letter was read from "Friends of the Library," concerning the possibility of having placed on the bazaar a one-mill tax on real estate, as a means of financing the Adams County Library Association, with an offer to send a speaker to a future meeting to explain the program. It was announced that a speaker is scheduled to be on the program at the October PTA meeting with an explanation and it was felt that all those interested could attend this meeting to hear the speaker outline the facts, making it unnecessary to have someone speak at club.

A certificate from the Women's Medical College was on display for members to see. It was an award to the club reading "Certificate of Commendation in grateful appreciation of generous assistance in the development program of the College" and was signed by the president.

Adopt Budget

The proposed budget prepared by the Finance committee was read by the committee chairman, Mr. Leonard Potter. The budget, totaling approximately $700 and providing for $187.50 for welfare and benevolence about $100 in the contingent fund and the remainder for club expenses, programming, etc., was adopted as presented.

Mr. Clarence Beachtel reported on the club bus trip in August, when about 35 members and guests enjoyed dinner and the play "Plain and Fancy" at Allenberry. Members were reminded that the October meeting will be a party at Camp Happy Valley, near Fairfield, with the Youth Conservation committee in charge of the program and the Girl Scout committee as hostesses.

The president announced the committees for the 1959-1960 club year as follows: departments; Civil Service, Mrs. Clarence Beachtel, chairman, Mrs. Naevah A. Crouse, Mrs. Curvin Hollinger, Mrs. Holman L. Sell, Mrs. Harry W. Stavely Jr. and Mrs. Monroe J. Stavely; conservation and gardens, Miss Malva Duttera, chairman, Mrs. Charles H. Fissel, Mrs. John W. LeGore, Mrs. John N. Sell and Mrs. Paul R. Snyder.

Education, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, chairman, Mrs. John D. Basehoar, Miss A. Marie Budde, Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn and Mrs. P. Bernard Mabel Wilkins.

Other Assignments

Peace Service, Mrs. Emory C. Gitt, chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Benner, Miss Glenna Place, Mrs. C. Wayne Purdue, Mrs. Willis Snyder and Mrs. Ralph I. Unger; public relations, Mrs. Paul E. Alford.

Welfare, Mrs. John H. Flickinger, chairman, Mrs. George C. Dehoff, Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, Mrs. Warren L. Bixler, Mrs. James W. Fager, Mrs. Harry T. Harner and Mrs. Mabel Wilkins.

Complete Line Of High Fidelity Stereophonic Equipment At Ditzler's

Ditzler's Music Supplies at 12 Baltimore St. have added the complete line of the all-new Motorola, three channel, stereophonic high fidelity equipment to their stock at the popular local music supply house.

High fidelity equipment in many models to fit many uses and many pocketbooks is available in this complete line of top quality instruments. Proprietor Charles E. Ditzler said.

The store carries an expanded stock of long playing, high fidelity and stereophonic records to go with the reproduction equipment.

It's A Close Contest

At Ditzler's they say it's a "toss up" between the LP's and the top 100 current hits in popularity and sales volume. But the store has a big supply of both kinds, in addition to old favorites, the standard popular performers and records for almost every purpose—including setting up exercises and weight reducing calisthenics.

Mr. and Mrs. Ditzler, 54 E. Water St., opened their new business on Baltimore St. late in April and stocked a very complete records of all kinds, sheet music, instruction books for pupils of the piano and most other instruments, mutes, lyres and most supplies needed by most instrumentalists and record fans. They also stock transistor and other radios in well known brand names that include Motorola and RCA. They have expanded that stock recently and display a varied and complete line.

What they don't have in stock they'll gladly order—and the serv-

STEEL STRIKE WILL AFFECT U. S. BUDGET

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration had a new and urgent reason today for possible intervention in the 10-week steel strike. If it is not settled soon, it will unbalance the federal budget.

Budget Director Maurice Stans Thursday unveiled a new and higher estimate of federal spending for this 1960 fiscal year. It carries a $5 million dollar surplus, a $5 million increase over previous estimates, built on the assumption of prosperity and rising tax collections.

Government revenues will suffer quickly, Stans told reporters, if the mighty steel industry fails to resume production in time to prevent a spreading industrial paralysis, dropping income, and declining profits.

Chances Uncertain

"If the strike is not settled in two or three weeks — or if there is no Taft-Hartley injunction or some other action to get the men back to work — the surplus would be rather quickly wiped out," he said.

Chances of a quick settlement of the strike remained uncertain. Negotiators have been meeting spasmodically in New York with no apparent progress.

There had been previous indications that early October would be the deadline for serious consideration by President Eisenhower of strike-stopping intervention.

Surplus Shaky

The new budget revision disclosed that the $7 billion dollar spending schedule which Eisenhower announced in his budget message has become a $78,905,000.00 budget.

The shaky surplus which he foresaw in January — 70 million dollars — has been preserved in the revision, and even enlarged a bit.

Business profits are smashing records, and NC&E Sam gets about half of every dollar of corporate earnings.

Stans said the government reckons that profits will total 48½ billion dollars this year, a record. Corporate tax collections, augmented by higher income and excise tax receipts, should produce an unprecedented 79 billion dollars in total revenues, he estimated. This is eight billion dollars higher than in the previous best year, 1957.

But a serious prolongation of the steel strike, an unexpected business slump, or an international crisis could upset the apple cart, Stans said.

And the hope of a general tax reduction in the reasonably near future, held out by Eisenhower in his budget message, has gone glimmering, Stans indicated.

PUPILS GIVEN CERTIFICATES AFTER TESTS

The Littlestown High School administration office has announced that certificates of achievement have been awarded to a number of students as a result of the National Education Development tests taken during the 1958-1959 school term by members of the current sophomore and junior classes.

In the sophomore group, ten certificates were awarded to those students with a 90 or above percentile, as follows: Sally A. Basehoar, Sally L. Brown, Daniel L. Fox, George E. Gobrecht, Bonnie G. Greene, Mary Jane Harmon, Richard L. Hornberger, Carol L. Reindollar, Rosalie Y. Sager and Diane Y. Yealy.

The tests were taken by academic students and all others who wished to participate and, of the 27 in the class who took the test, only five were slightly below the 50 percentile, which is the national average. The tests were competitive with 149,000 students, in 366 school in 254 school systems participating.

Junior Winners

Certificates in the present junior class for 90 percentile or over were received by Sandra L. Hawk, W. Stair, Roy E. Study Jr., Veronika H. Study Jr., Marietta Weik, Laurence, Jacqueline Morelock, Bert and Ronald R. Yingling.

Each Scout should have a camp box for meals, extra clothing, toilet articles; each one will provide his own sleeping equipment, cooking utensils and whatever else they will want or need along the trail in camp, especially a poncho or raincoat, a canteen, extra socks.

Individual knapsacks should be kept light — "they get heavier by the mile." Pup tents will be provided for sleeping and will be taken to camp along with the individual's camp boxes, by truck, to the campsites. Air mattresses and steel camp boxes can be purchased at Scout headquarters. It is suggested that the boys cook breakfast and supper and have cold dinners.
